

I would just like to tell you that my Airl station is very important to me. It is a positive station for me to turn to when I need cheering up. It is a station I can count on for support. I know that I am not the only one that feels this way. In that way, Airl is a vital service to my community and to the country as a whole. Thanks for your time.